

Graduate Recruitment Consultant

Skillnet is a specialist provider of Apprenticeships in the automotive sector. Operating nationally, each year we manage the training for more than 4000 people. We run the national Apprenticeship Programmes for Ford, Daf Trucks and Scania Great Britain as well as programmes for independent motor businesses.

Do you want to achieve and have high on target earnings in your first year? Want a company that will help you to progress and reach your goals and a career where your performance is truly rewarded?

Competitive Salary & Benefits, 25 Days holiday + Bank, Private Health Care and more.

Our top achievers can take home up to £2000 extra per month.

We are a vibrant and exciting organisation. We are looking to hire Graduate Recruitment Consultants who are seeking a challenging and rewarding career. Boasting an impressive portfolio of fantastic clients, we aim to provide the best service for both our clients and candidates. We achieve this by having an excellent, consultative team on board. Skillnet is a specialist provider of Apprenticeships in the automotive sector. Operating nationally, each year we manage the training for more than 4000 people. We run the national Apprenticeship Programmes for Ford, DAF Trucks, and Scania Great Britain as well as programmes for independent motor businesses.

You'll be joining an ambitious environment with high achievers who believe passionately in Understanding Recruitment. Think about it, you'll work with great like-minded people, have the ability to earn a fantastic salary and receive constant investment in your training and development.

We are looking for highly determined, motivated and driven individuals. With a natural sales ability and a passion to succeed and excel in their career. Recruitment is a sales role - it involves placing candidates into suitable roles, building relationships with new businesses and managing existing accounts.

Main Purpose of the role:

Required to meet starts and revenue targets through:

- Selling Apprenticeships to employers, identifying apprenticeship vacancies and existing eligible employed staff for apprenticeship programmes.
- Selling and delivering a commercial recruitment service to employers
- Matching suitable applicants to open vacancies and ensure the right applicant is recruited for the right employer and where relevant, placed on the right training programme and for the right length of time.
- Working with a regional field team, this job is office based and involves ensuring that all available resource in the team is focused on delivering an excellent recruitment service to existing and prospective employers.

Mon- Friday 9:00-5:30pm

This job description describes (but does not limit) the main duties and responsibilities of the job. These are subject to variation by Skillnet as is necessary to respond to changes, both internal and external which the Company experiences.

If this is of interest please apply so that we can get in touch and discuss this opportunity in more detail with you.